A Unique Place

Hospice is a special way of caring for patients diagnosed with a terminal illness and their families.

The mission statement for Hospice is to provide care for persons at the end of life as fully and comfortably as possible and to offer continuing support to the family after the death.

“Somewhere out there is a unique place for you to help others—a unique role for you to fill that only you can fill.”

—Thomas Kinkade

“We had hospice when my husband was ill—the nurses, home health aides & volunteers were wonderful. They soon became part of our family. Now I volunteer as a way of giving back to those who helped me. It is one of the most rewarding things I do.”—Judy Gallistel, Volunteer
